They are intended for the 31st regiment, and will ena-ble it to move immediately to the interior of Kentucky. It is said that the 42d will take the place of the 31st at Henderson.

-The Louisville Jayraal, of Monday, says: On Friday the 19th Illinois regiment moved from the Lebanon Junction to Elizabethtown, where they are now in camp. They relieved the three companies under Major Pictle's command and belonging to the 4th Kentucky regiment. The latter moved down to Nolin in the evening and there joined Gen. Rosseau's brigade. The 19th Illinois is a fine body of men, and many of them have seen service.

-THE INDIANA LEGION .- We copy the following from the Evansville Journal:

The 2nd regiment of the Indiana Legion, organizing in this city, under command of Colonel Blythe, is filling up, and will doubtless be full in a few days. The companies are drilling daily, and rapidly perfecting themselves in all soldierly requirements. When completed, duly armed and equipped, this will be one of the finest regiments in the State. A better body of men cannot be found. Our citizens of all classes, able to bear arms and the fatigues of camp, have promptly enrolled themselves except a few scammyhorns, who prefer to be protected by others, rather than aid in protecting themselves. The Branch Bank has also appropriated fifty dollars to each full company, for the same porpose, an offering both timely and praiseworthy. In addition, two artillery companies are about full, so that ere long we expect to present a form-

-The Madison Courier says : We have been told that the volunteers at Seymour are dissatisfied with their camp, and that a vote was had to determine whether they would remove to camp Morton, Indianapolis, or to camp Jefferson, at North Madison. The vote was unanimous to remove to camp Jefferson.

We copy the following from the same paper of the 28th:

The military company of the 9th regiment Indiana Legion, of this city, known as the Zouaves, we learn, has practically disbanded, and that the guns of the Zouaves will be given to some one companies of the Legion in the country. What a comment this is upon the objection raised by the independent compaines to join the Legion! A company of the Legion practically disbands, and there is no power to bring them back. Gov. Morton can't do it, because the Zouave has only to step on the ferry boat, or go outside he limits of the county, and he is absolved.

We hope the two efficient companies left—the Greys and City Guards—will reconsider their votes in this regard, and accept the advantages and pay of the State in the Legion.

That the young men, in this time of our country's peril, have but one good excuse for not being soldiers, and that is cowanice. That the young man who now fails to respond to the call of his country is not worthy the kind regards or the smiles of the young ladies of our native Hoosier State, and that none but ladies of a doubtful age will smile on such men. That we will have nothing to do with young men who re-fuse to go to the war, and that "Home Guards" must keep their distance. That the young man who has not pluck enough to fight for his country has not got the manliness to make a good husband. That we will marry no man who has not been a soldier. That we will not marry till after the war is over; and then, "Home Guards!"
